And all persons are cordially invited to attend and take part in the proceedings of this Convention, who hold the principles of the Republican party, who held the principles of the Republican party of the State was inaugurated, viz: Freedom of Slavery, the Chief political issue. Cincinnati Democratic Convention.

The Cincinnati Convention was permanently organized, yesterday, by the choice of John E. Ward, of Georgia, for President, and thirty Vice Presidents and thirty-one Secretaries. Among the Vice Presidents, we notice the name of Matt. Ward, of Texas, the shameless and barbarous wretch who murdered, in cold blood, the school-master Butler, in Kentucky, some two years ago. He is a villain of the deepest dye, despised by every one who has a single spark of humanity left; and for a long time, after perpetrating the diabolical and deliberate murder, was a vagabond upon the face of the earth, with whom none but the vilest and most depraved would associate; yet he is a fit representative of the Democratic party in its present servile and degenerate condition. Matt. Ward, Herbert and Brooks! a beautiful trio of murderers, and prominent leaders of the sham democracy. A party that was not trucking to obtain votes from the sinks of pollution—the dens of infamy—the very sum of creation made up of once-purged such infamous leaders, by refusing to fellowship with them.

The President, on taking the Chair, made a hifalutin speech, about "a faction with liberty on their tongues, but treason festering at their hearts, who profess love for the Union only that they may bury, in the ruins of the Union, the glorious memories of the Past and the hopes of the Future," and shed a few tears over the "great, noble Whig party," the death of whose leaders was "incurable by political friends and foes."

The anti-Beaton delegates, from Missouri, were admitted. The News received the following private dispatch, from the Convention, last evening: "Balloting will commence to-morrow. Buchanan will be nominated on the third or fourth ballot."

The Representatives of the Democracy.

The Buffalo Republic says a number of the Delegates to the Cincinnati Convention, stopping at one of our hotels, last night, commenced calling one another blackguards and liars across the supper table, to the exquisite satisfaction of many ladies present. The fun did not end here. When the hotel was wrapped in repose at midnight, several obtained a large number of eggs, boxes of pain-killers, tar, turpentine, &c., and went around to the doors of their antagonists' bed-rooms, and deposited about an inch of the above-mentioned mixed up mess in the boots that stood outside, awaiting the polishing process. They burned assted in the bow's of pipes, and blew the smoke through the key-holes of the doors. They did everything that was villainous and mean. The unfortunate, on putting on their boots in the morning, found themselves emphatically "in a mess," and great was the ringing of bells and confusion thereat. The fourth story of that hotel is the nastiest place imaginable. Old socks, soaked with egg yolk, tar, &c., lie stiffened on the floor or plastered against the walls. The carpets are a sight, and the rooms look horrible.

Women Moving in Illinois. Mrs. Tracy Cutler and Miss E. G. Waite, of Chicago, feeling the sacredness of human liberty, and deeming that the Judge of all the Earth will not count them guilty if they hold their peace, when our Senators are stricken down upon the floors of Congress for the most noble utterance of truth in defense of liberty; and when our sisters in Kansas are driven from their firesides, their houses pillaged, their husbands murdered before their eyes, and their children rendered homeless orphans by an organized mob, acting in the name, with the arms, and by the authority of the Government of the United States, have called a Convention of the Women of Illinois, to be held in the City of Chicago, June 10th, at the Metropolitan Hall commencing at ten o'clock A. M., for the purpose of organizing a State Society, that their efforts may be concentrated in turning back the tide of oppression that is now sweeping over our land, and threatening the entire overthrow of our government.

COOLED OFF.—It was believed at Washington, when the stand taken by Senator Wilson was made known, that a renege would be the immediate consequence; but it appears that Mr. Wilson's conduct cooled down Brooks wonderfully. Gen. Lane called upon Wilson after the receipt of his reply, and answered for Mr. Brooks that no assault upon him was contemplated, and that he and his friends might disar. Mr. Wilson accepted these assurances, and appeared in the avenue without arms. The whole affair is over with, so far as these two are concerned.

AN INCIDENT.—The wife of Gov. Robinson on her return to Kansas to meet her husband, stopped at Bloomington, Illinois, the day of the great Convention. Knowing her destitute circumstances, since the Government Algerines sacked and burned her house, the Chicago delegates made up a purse of $300 and presented it to her as a token of esteem and sympathy for herself and her gallant husband in their present persecution. On her way to Alton, on the Friday morning train, the passengers made up a purse of $101 in gold and presented it to her. The brave little woman shed tears of gratitude. She remarked that the people of Illinois had big hearts and hoped that God would crown with success their efforts to succeed and to save their suffering brethren in Kansas from destruction and extermination.

EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY.—The first meeting of the Wauwatosa Educational Society was held on the 31st of May. The officers of the Society are: President—Geo. F. Westover. Vice Presidents—Catherine McDonald, Susan G. Warren. Secretary—Cyrus W. Damon. Treasurer—Elizabeth Chapin. The meeting was well attended by the teachers, and the exercises were of a very interesting character.

THE annual Universalist State Convention will convene in Racine, on the 7th inst.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.—The Racine Advocate of the 4th inst., says: We learn that the work on the extension of our piers is sufficiently advanced that, next week one section will be sunk, and the week after, another will be in readiness.

KANSAS CORRESPONDENCE.

LEAVENWORTH CITY, K. T., May 24th, 1856.

FRIEND BOOTH:

Amidst the most intense excitement, I will endeavor to be sufficiently calm to record, without bias or coloring a few of the many incidents that have transpired during the past week, although feeling deeply, as every one must, the terrible shock they have given to the confederacy we have already sacrificed so much to maintain. You can have, at that distance, no idea of the point already reached here by all parties in their appreciation of the Union of the States. The sentiment varies in individuals, from a positive disregard to an intense abhorrence. In parties, there is no difference, in that respect. The Free State men hold the question of Human Rights far above all questions of commercial or political advantage, and would sooner see the line of separation drawn, not only between them and the South, but between them and every other political body under heaven, than consent to the incorporation, into the fundamental law of the State we are to be, of those de-humanizing edicts that disgrace nearly half the States of our Union; while the pro-Slavery party boldly assumes the reverse, and talk loudly of throwing the weight of the Union into the support of Slavery, though distinction follows. They would give their interest in the Union, to-day, for a patent perpetuating Slavery in Kansas, and pay boot-money. Further than this, you understand that men here are not political enemies and personal friends at the same time. The discussion of the question, from its nature, transcends that point at the outset. The property of the one half is opposed to the principle of the other half, and here we find, as too frequently elsewhere, that those whose property is at stake, are far more zealous and indefatigable than those who combat for a principle. I have stated thus simply the relation of the Free State and Pro-Slavery parties; that the actions of each might be better understood. Thus far, Free State men have contended for a principle, principles forth they have at stake, property, principle and existence; and I fear, with our chance for energetic interference by the National Executive, the history of this fair country, for the coming year, will be a sanguinary record.

You will have heard ere this reaches you, that Robinson was forcibly taken from a steamboat, at Lexington; that Brown, the editor of the Herald of Freedom, was captured by a mob near Westport; that Gen. Schuyler and Judge Conway were treated at Parkville, on Sunday last, as Robinson was at Lexington, although they were soon after released; that the United States Marshal (Heaven save us) summoned a mob to make arrests at Lawrence, when the people of that town had never objected to arrests being made by authority of the United States, and when U. S. troops were nearer and more available, if such were the real object; that the mob thus summoned, was stationed at different points, some near, some quite remote from Lawrence, and sallied out, at every opportunity from those points to plunder the inhabitants of rural districts, of their horses, cattle and grain; that all persons traveling thro' the country, whether settlers or strangers, who escaped being robbed of their money, arms and clothing, were considered evidences of the truth of the theory of special providences. Still you will have a faint idea of the general outline of a continuous system of outrage, planned by government officials, and executed by men who differ from them only in the deeper degradation of glorying over being the dirty minions of those whom an honest man would blame fortune for introducing even to his casual acquaintances. I will not attempt to select the truth from the many conflicting reports about the outrage upon Lawrence—you will get that from eye-witnesses, but I do wish to call your attention to a very desperate game that is already in process of accomplishment. Messrs. Howard and Sherman, than whom better men could not have been selected to fill the important posts they occupy, as the majority of the Investigating Committee, are sought to be sacrificed! The endeavor to break up the investigation, was apparent in every move the propagandists made at the earlier stages of the session, and men of less nerve and dignity might have relinquished the task in desperation.

Insolence seemed at first the favorite mode, but the Chairman, Mr. Howard, very soon convinced the scions of Atechism that the Board possessed both the dignity commensurate with their office, and the power to maintain it. Their course has been worthy of all praise. Just toward all parties, and courteous at all times, they have now the love of all Free State men, and many candid men of the opposite party, but the rabid pro-slavery advocates, conscious of the advantage the Free State cause would gain by the investigation and the manly bearing of the Republican part of the Committee, appeared to feed the rumor of their hatred, on what honest men admire. Presses poured forth a torrent of libelous charges, stigmatizing the majority of the Committee as Reeder's Council, accusing them of making seditious and inflammatory speeches at Lawrence, and of expending most of the appropriations there to support treasonable measures, and when they came to this place, the correspondent of the Missouri Republican, in a communication dated 15th inst., asks, as published in the Republican of the 21st inst:—"Why Howard and Sherman were not put 'in bed' with Delahay's press?"—meaning in the Missouri river. That is the general feeling of the majority of the pro-slavery party—and we know it—and the only question asked here in regard to it is—Dare they attempt it? I say, Not here. But the Committee go from here to Westport (Mo.) in a few days, and many Free State men fear Violence will be the order of the day. The North trusts too much to the Patrician and Honor of the South. Their slide of the present question practically excludes both Honor and Patriotism, and we expect no gratuitous courtesies on the Slavery Question.

Yesterday we learned that the free State men had retaliated by burning Franklin, a pro-slavery town about twelve miles from Lawrence. We hope not. This morning about 8 o'clock the steamer Polar Star, with streamers flying and cannon booming, approached the levee of our city, to bring for trial, for treason, Dr. Robinson, Free State Gov. Waving banners, martial music, and belching cannon. That sounds some like the celebration of a victory won. Wonder who is the victor? I saw him at the McCarty House, and found it difficult to believe the thorough gentleman and scholar before me was the same Dr. Robinson that Judge Lecompte and his obsequious grand jury (you know something of arches and grand juries) denounced as an arch traitor. We learned from some of the escort that they attempted to take him to Leavenworth from Kansas City, but that at Franklin they came near falling into the hands of the Free State men, and barely escaped by hurrying rapidly back to Missouri. They also corroborated the rumor of fighting about Franklin, representing the country as being engaged in a guerilla warfare.

The country is all that it is represented to be in excellence, and as soon as Congress settles the matter of Slavery, by admitting Free Kansas into the Union, its progress will commence. I have real, live, earnest hope, that the question will be settled without a general war, but bloodshed, more or less, there will be until the President and Congress attend to something else beside President-making. It is the general impression here, that unless checked in six weeks, a general civil war must result.

BEAVER DAM ELECTION.—The election in Beaver Dam on Monday resulted in the success of the democratic ticket for city officers. Robinson was elected Mayor over Sloan by 45 majority. The following are the other officers elected: Police Justice, Allen; Marshal, Gorman. Eight of the 12 Aldermen are democrats.

THE LAND GRANT TO MICHIGAN.—The bill granting 1,500,000 acres to Michigan, in aid of certain Railroads, passed the house of Representatives on the 27th of May and the Senate on the 30th. The roads to be aided, are—Ontonagon to Marquette, thence to Bay de Noquet, on the West side of Lake Michigan; also, from Grand Rapids to Grand Traverse; also, from Little Traverse, south to Lansing (being the Cincinnati and Mackinac project); also, from Flint to Pere Marquette (being the "Drake Road"); also, from Port Huron to Grand Haven; also, from Marquette and Ontonagon to a point on the Wisconsin State Line to intersect the Wisconsin Road to Fond du Lac.

DEATH OF HON. JOHN M. NILES.—Hon. John M. Niles, formerly Senator in Congress from Connecticut, and Postmaster General under President Van Buren, died at Hartford on Saturday afternoon last, in the 69th year of his age.

NEW YORK PAPERS.—We are indebted to THOS. BOYLE, the enterprising newspaper agent at 213 East Water st., for the N. Y. Tribune of Monday, 24 hours in advance of the mail. You will also find a variety of other late eastern papers by calling at his depot.

PLAIN BUT TRUTHFUL.—The Rev. Horace James, in a sermon delivered at Worcester, Massachusetts, on the 25th of May, on the recent outrage in the U. S. Senate, says:

Oh, my friends, say not much at present of Preston S. Brooks. Considering his training, and his manner, he is as much of a man as could be expected. He is not a stunner above others more respectable in station and influence. Look rather at the Power of which the honorable (I) refrain is the truest embodiment; and when you pray, remember that. When you speak and organize your efforts, when you consult, or when you vote, remember that. Note its daring deeds for fitting retribution, and in the day of retribution, let it sternly come. It should be noticed again that this incident in the U. S. Senate indicates the settled purpose of the Slave Power to enforce to its full extent, its law. It was a bold push, and a half-way measure. It has a deep significance. It was done deliberately, and by those who made certain calculation upon the firm support of the Oligarchy with all its numerous dependencies. It was presumed that the influence that shielded the miscreant who attacked Horace Greeley, and which welcomed still to its embrace the murderer of Keating, as a man of untarnished honor and purity, would also throw theegis of its powerful protection about any man who should rush in death a voice so eloquent as Sumner's, to castigate upon shameless crime, so searching and fearless in driving out its apostles from their lairs, so successful in arousing torpid consciences, by exhibiting the simple majesty of truth, clothed in a dress of heavenly beauty.

PROP. IOWA.—The Beaver Islander of the 23rd ult. says:

The Iowa went down this morning in tow of the Edith and Sam. She had broke her shaft.

GALE.—A fierce hurricane swept over Winona, Minnesota, last Friday, the 23d of May, doing considerable injury to buildings.

A Post Office has been established at Viola, in Richland county, and Cyrus D. Turner, Esq., is the Post Master.

Col. Sumner, commanding the U. States troops at Fort Leavenworth, is said to be a cousin of Senator Sumner.

The Cleveland Journal says there are over fifty jobbing houses in that city, and that their annual sales amount to over $20,000,000.

A new hotel is to be built in St. Louis, to be called the Northern Hotel, at a cost of $200,000.

The Green Mountains, in the vicinity of Bennington, were covered with snow on the morning of the 26th ult.

THE CAPITAL OF WISCONSIN.

A Home for Invalids and their Friends.

The Proprietors have the pleasure to announce that they have secured the services of Dr. E. A. KITTEREDGE, of Boston, the eminent physician and popular lecturer upon the principles of Hydropathy, to take charge of the Institution. The reputation of this distinguished practitioner was the first American to adopt the Hydropathic treatment, and who showed such commendable zeal in his efforts to obtain a thorough knowledge of the principles and practice of the Therapeutic system, and who has since been visiting the principal Hydropathic Institutions of this country and Europe, is thus a sufficient guarantee that the Invalids who resort hither will be properly and thoroughly treated.

The Institution is capable of accommodating 100 guests—furnished in a superior manner and in all its appointments suited to the purpose for which it was constructed. It is situated on the South shore of the beautiful Lake Monona, opposite in full view of the City of Madison, and is admirably removed from the public thoroughfares and localities of business to ensure a quiet and restful residence.

TELEGRAPH.

Foreign Intelligence

INDIANA.

BY THE

The Str. Indiana which arrived at Quebec on the 1st inst brings the following intelligence:

In the house of Lords, Monday, the Earl of Clarendon in reply to a question by Earl Elgin, said that the letter signed E. Hammond, was a genuine document.

The agents of Costa Rica, and some South American State had, since the attack of Walker, appealed to England for assistance to defend them. A great variety of projects had been laid before the Government for acceptance; all these requests her Majesty's Government had refused, declaring they would have nothing to do with Central America, at the same time deploring the consequences of Walker's attack on Nicaragua, in which property had been sacrificed, and would be glad if his enterprises had been carried no further, that their action would be limited to sending naval forces to that coast, sufficient for the protection of British property. The war department, in compliance with the urgent requests of Costa Rica, and the Government consequently communicated with the United States in the matter, and the latter had replied to Cramp-ton on the 8th, saying that he disapproved of the existing state of things in Nicaragua, and thought it would cast a shadow upon the reputation of the United States, and that there was no better plan of proceeding than for the United States and British Governments to combine for the protection of their subjects.

Despatches from Vienna state that a convention had been concluded between the Porte and Western powers, and the evacuation of the Turkish territory by the Allied troops would be completed in six months. The weather in England had been boisterous, and several vessels had gone ashore on the coast.

There has been renewed buoyancy in funds, and Consols closed at 93 1/2 for money; 94 1/2 for Consols. Money less stringent.

Democratic Triumph.

The democrats of Washington have elected their Mayor and Councilmen.

Senator Wilson.

Mr Wilson denied unequivocally in Boston the statement that Col. Lane called on him from Mr. Brooks, with an assurance that he would be made no assault upon him.

Mr Wilson says he has sought no controversy, and would seek none, but he will go wherever duty calls, uninduced by threats of any kind.

Indignation Meetings.

An indignation meeting, to take into consideration the recent assault upon Senator Sumner and the present state of affairs, was held at the Eagle at Theater, in Buffalo on the evening of the 2nd inst. F. P. Stevens presided. Speeches were made by James O. Putnam, Rev. Dr. Thompson, and Mr. Whitman, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Kansas Investigating Committee.

Resolutions were adopted denouncing the Sumner assault, and calling for instant action in Kansas matters. A similar meeting was held at Cambridge, Mass., on the same evening, at which the Hon. J. Barker presided, assisted by Hon. B. Parsons, Jared Sparks, H. W. Longfellow and others.

Know Nothingism South.
